MEDIA ADVISORY

Bluffton H.S. Football Field/Bobcat Vandalized

On Monday, December 30, 2013 Bluffton Police received a report of vandalism that occurred at the Bluffton High School football field. It was discovered that sometime between 7:00 p.m. and 12:30 a.m. on December 29, 2013 some individual(s) went into the football stadium and spray painted several areas within the field. The words "seahawk nation" and "bird gang" were spray painted on the visitor's bench. The Bluffton Bobcat Mascot was spray painted blue as well as some explicit words and graphics painted in the Bobcat Tunnel.

If you have any further information about this incidents please contact Detective Mike Danyov at 843-706-4516 or Crime Stoppers at 1-888-CRIME-SC.
